For details of how we use your personal data, please see our privacy statement at:
<http://www.mhra.org.uk/about/policies>

The default option for communication with our members is via email, in order to reduce paper waste. Please tick here if you do NOT wish to receive future communications regarding membership in electronic form.

Please tick this box if you wish to receive occasional supplementary emails from MHRA regarding news, events, and activities.

PAYMENT

Payment can either be made by cheque (payable to Modern Humanities Research Association), or by direct transfer to Lloyds TSB, Sidney Street, Cambridge, BX1 1LT, UK, sort code: 30-91-56, account no: 01444874 (BIC: LOYDGB2L, IBAN: GB64 LOYD 3091 5601 4448 74). Please use your surname as the payment reference, and send this form to the Membership Secretary as below, marked 'bank transfer'. There is currently no facility for paying by standing order or credit card, but if you have set up a repeating annual payment through online banking, please check that the sum is still correct.

Payments by Individual Members in academic employment are a subscription to a professional association approved by the Inland Revenue as tax deductible in the UK. The position in some other countries is substantially the same. It is understood that journals are supplied wholly and exclusively for the personal and private use of individuals in connection with their employment.

MHRA JOURNALS

Members are entitled to reduced subscriptions to our journals. Subscription to the MHRA's journals runs for a calendar year. Prices are given in GBP for UK/European members, and USD for US/worldwide members. Please note that customs duties are not included.

Print orders will be dispatched upon publication.
